MILLIONAIRE IS SHOT BY WOMEN

Stokes Was In Search of Love Letters.

HIS REQUEST REFUSED

Prominent New Yorker, Recently Married, Figures in Exciting Episode in a Broadway Apartment. Two Girls Open Fire With Revolvers, Inflicting Slight Wounds in Legs—Assailant Talks Freely While Waiting For Friend to Get Bail.

New York, June 8.—W. E. D. Stokes, millionaire owner of the Ansonia, who is now 65 years old, was shot three times by two young women who say that he came to their apartment to get letters written by him before he was married last February. Mr. Stokes is in Roosevelt hospital with injuries which his attorney described as trifling. The girls say that in the scuffle, which was carried into the hallway outside their rooms, Mr. Stokes also took a random shot at them, but he didn't hit anything.

Lillian Graham, who said in the station house that she was 22, and a singer, and Ethel Conrad, three years her junior, who didn't specify her occupation, were the two girls, who had a small apartment in the Varona, at 225 West Eighty-third street, which is on the northeast corner of Broadway. They have been there only three or four weeks. Miss Graham talked rather freely to the matron of the West Sixty-eighth street station after she had been waiting for some one to come and bail her out for quite a while. She said that she and her married sister lived together at the Ansonia four years ago, and that they knew Stokes at that time. A year ago she and her sister went to Belgium, where she was to study music. The sister remained on the other side and Miss Graham came back to this city and set up very light housekeeping in the three rooms and kitchen in West Eighty-third street.

Acknowledges Having Letters.
She had some letters which Stokes had written her, and though she believed there was nothing in them, to cause anything free themselves, she hadn't been back long before Stokes began to phone to her about them. He didn't like the idea of giving Miss Conrad where she could lay her hands on them, Miss Graham said Stokes told her.

Mr. Stokes told his lawyers that he went to the apartment occupied by the women in response to a telephone message from Miss Conrad, saying that Miss Graham had called for Europe and that if he wanted the letters he should call at once. When he called Miss Graham demanded $25,000 for the letters, and upon his refusal to come over with the price opened fire on him.

Literature Found.

The police today found a poem written by Miss Graham, which read in part:

"You've slipped all the honey there was in the flower,
And its petals are yellow and dry;
You've had all the sweetness in one short hour,
And now leave the rose to die,
Oh, bitterly, when you flew away,
And I thought my life was over,
A voice in my heart seemed to say:
'Cheer up, and another lover.'

Miss Graham came to this city immediately after the San Francisco earthquake and went to live at the Ansonia, conducted by Stokes. About eight months ago she accompanied her sister, Mrs. Singleton, to Europe, ostensibly going to Belgium to study music. Her friends say she told them she was coming back after her musical education was completed to marry Stokes. Instead, about four months later, Stokes and Miss Edw. slipped over to Hoboken one night and were married. On hearing this, Miss Graham hurried back to this city. She and Miss Conrad have been living at the Varona since.

REVIEW BOARD IS ORGANIZED

No Appointment Made to Fill Vacancy.

APPLICANTS ARE NUMEROUS

Central Committee to Make Endorsement.

Choice May Fall on One of Several

Dark Horses in the Race for S. E. DeWolfe's Place on the City Board.

Rumor of Appointment Being Already Made is Without Foundation.

Members of the City Board of Review are rather anxious to know who their new associate on the board is going to be.

The term of S. E. DeWolfe expired last Monday but no appointment has been made to fill the vacancy. The board proceeded to organize last Monday the same as if there were a full membership.

G. H. Foster was made president and George Geary was hired as chief clerk for a period of 30 days and William Gaylin was hired as a clerk for the same length of time.

It was rumored about the city this afternoon that a prominent Democratic candidate for mayor had been tendered the place but had turned it down. This was not exactly true.

Friends of the candidate had urged him to become a candidate for the vacancy but he prefers to take his chances at the polls this fall.

It is likely that an appointment will be made before another week, among the more prominent applicants being John Darmody, John Himmenger, Richard Horn, W. B. Jessop and several others. The matter is up to the Democratic central committee and the candidate receiving the committee's endorsement will be decided by ballot. It is claimed that there are several dark horses in the race and that the choice of the committee may fall on one of these.

YOUNG FARMER GETS INTO TROUBLE

Father Straightens Out His Accounts.

William Smith, Colored, is Taken to The Dayton Workhouse by Officer Thompson, This Morning.

Carl W. Siffritt, who resides about six miles west of the city, was arrested last night by Captain Bond upon the request of County Detective Matthews of Delaware, who held a warrant for his arrest, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. Matthews arrived in the city this morning to take charge of his prisoner.

Some time ago, Siffritt gave a shoe dealer in Delaware a worthless check. The check was drawn on the Marion County bank. At the time, he claimed he had money in the bank, but the holder of the check had never been able to cash it.

Siffritt's father, a prominent farmer in the western part of the county, was notified of his son's trouble. He came to the city this morning and straightened out his son's accounts. The check was made good after Siffritt had promised his father to be good in the future. Mr. Siffritt states that his son has cost him about $400 by getting into trouble of this kind.

Officer Thompson made a trip to Dayton this morning, taking William Smith of north Park street with him to the workhouse in that city. Smith is the colored man who pleaded guilty to the charge of keeping a place where intoxicating liquors were kept for sale as a beverage. He was fined $50 and costs by Mayor Selzer and will have to work out that amount at the workhouse.

CIRCUIT COURT JUDGES HAVE

The Cox Case and Will Decide it Soon.

By United Press Wire.
Cincinnati, June 8.—Judges Dustin, Fernald and Allred, of the Second judicial circuit of Ohio, left Cincinnati last night at the conclusion of the arguments in the mandamus proceedings brought by Prosecutor Hunt against Common Pleas Judge William L. Dickson to save one of the two judges' indictments against George B. Cox from being quashed.

Should the opinion be favorable to the state's contention that it had a right to make an election before the notion to quash was heard and decided, one indictment will be left untouched by Judge Dickson's decision and will give the prosecutor another fighting chance against Cox.

FILED MOTIONS TO QUASH BILLS

Of Indictment Found Against Cetone And Others.

Columbus, O., June 8.—Attorneys Belcher and Conner this afternoon filed motions to quash the indictments for alleged bribery returned against Senators George K. Cetone, Isaac L. R. Anderson and William J. Diegel on the main ground that two different crimes are alleged in a single count.

The grounds set up are: 1. That there is duplicity in each indictment. 2. That the intent and purpose to perform the alleged crime is imperfectly alleged. 3. That the indictments fail to state for what purpose the legislative bills they were indicted in connection with were pending before the bodies. 4. That Rodney J. Diegel is charged with "aiding and abetting at diverse times" and that in each instance but one date is mentioned. 5. That the indictments fail to state the contents of messages which are claimed to have been carried between the bureau detectives and legislators by Diegel.

It is further claimed that the grand jury overstepped its bounds by "presenting an indictment against Diegel when the contents of such alleged messages were not known; that it is not set forth that said messages alleged to have been carried by Diegel had any relation with the offense charged, and that it doesn't show for what purpose the meeting between the legislators and the detectives was arranged."

Twenty More Signed up.

Columbus, O., June 8.—Twenty more new laws enacted by the recent legislature were approved by Governor Harrison today.

Important among them is the Thomas Weight bill, which provides for sale of food, except bread, by weight instead of measure and a bill by Representative Deleer empowering sealers of weights and measures to test money value of competing scales. These bills are designed to save thousands of dollars to consumers in Ohio.

Five bills of interest to factory workers were signed by the governor including the Hudson bill, providing a penalty for operating dangerous machines after having been condemned by the inspector of workshops; another bill by Mr. Hudson as to placing of counter floors in buildings in course of erection; a bill by Reynolds to more securely guard elevators and elevator shafts, and a bill providing for an additional assistant chief inspector of workshops to secure compliance to the building laws.

County boards of infirmaries will be abolished and county commissioners will do their work after January 1, 1912, by the provisions of a bill by Representative Browder, signed by the governor today.

London Bank Broke.

London, June 8.—The suspension of the Birkbeck bank was announced today.

The bank had more than 50,000 small depositors. Liabilities will exceed its assets by nearly $2,000,000. They say the bank should pay out eighty cents on the dollar. The bank was established in 1851.

The bank had more small depositors than any other bank in London. These depositors were greatly excited when the suspension was posted this evening. Thousands flocked to the bank and yelled for a hard time preventing damage being done to the building.

Word From Mrs. Stokes.

Denver, Col., June 8.—"Don't worry, everything is all right, Mr. Stokes' condition not serious."

Mrs. Arthur S. Miller today received this telegram from her daughter, Mrs. W. E. D. Stokes.

Mrs. Stokes was Helen Ellwood, one of the prettiest girls in Denver society. She was 23 years old when she went to New York, to study art and music. No inkling of her approaching marriage to Stokes was received here prior to the event. Her mother and sister did not even know she was engaged and were astounded on February 11 last when newspaper reporters advised them of the marriage in Hoboken.

Ask Commutation of Sentence.

Cincinnati, June 8.—Cincinnati clubmen and the Ohio Humane society have filed the nation-wide appeal for commutation of sentence or a reprieve for Mrs. Angelina Napolitano, of Sault Ste Marie, Ontario, imprisoned for slaying her husband, and now facing motherhood for the fifth time.

In the hope of preventing execution of the death sentence against the prisoner, Miss M. C. Coss, Dow, druggist, appealed to Secretary Oscar Trautman, of the Humane society. Trautman has written to the president of the National Humane association, Dr. William O. Stillman, and through J. J. Kelso, the association's correspondent in Ontario, an appeal is to be made.

Clubwomen in Cincinnati are already directing applications for clemency to be sent to the governor general of Canada. Italian Consul Charles Ginocchio, of Cincinnati, also has been interested in the case of the Italian woman.

Olympic Games.

New York, June 8.—Announcement regarding the Olympic games to be held in Stockholm in 1912 were made today by James E. Sullivan, secretary of the A. A. U. Another decision is that all entrants must certify that they are citizens of the countries they represent.

SON-IN-LAW COMES TO AID

Doctor Makes no Statement Regarding Case.

Interesting Matter of Frank M. Smith Against Hoke W. Donithen Set for Trial Friday Involves Ownership of Greenwood Street Lumber Company.

Honesty of Attorney Causes Continuance of Case Today—Court Notes.

Dr. William A. Charter, charged with causing the death of Mrs. Orison E. Creston through a criminal operation, and who has been in jail since Monday night, succeeding in raising the $1,000 bond under which he was placed by the common pleas court, and was released about ten o'clock Wednesday evening.

The bond is signed by Mrs. Charter, the doctor's wife, and by a son-in-law, J. E. Shetterly, of Marysville. Because the latter is a non-resident, the county clerk compelled him to qualify, by showing that he owned property at least $5,000 over and above indebtedness.

The damage case of M. B. Chase against Wm. Fox and wife, an action to recover $52.50 real estate commission alleged to be due was decided in favor of the defendants in the common pleas court Wednesday afternoon. The jury was out about a half hour. Mr. Chase claimed that he had a contract to sell certain property for the defendants, but that the property was sold by another firm, and he insisted that his commission was due anyway.

Leave to file an amended petition by September 30 has been granted in the matter of the Marion Steam shovel company against the Marion Shovel and Dredge company.

The appeal action of William J. Thibault against Elmer Mayfield was set for trial in the court of common pleas today. This is a case founded upon the collection of an account because of the illness of Mr. Mayfield's attorney, Homer E. Johnson, the matter was continued.

The civil action of Frank M. Smith against Hoke W. Donithen is set for trial tomorrow. This matter has to do with the purchasing of the Greenwood Street Lumber company which Smith claims was purchased for him, but the bill of sale for which was made out to Mr. Donithen. The matter is considerably involved and it is likely that several days will be required to decide the case.

Do Your Cooking in the Cool

A hot kitchen is little better than a prison in summer. But the range is there, so all the cooking and the washing must be done there, too.

What a relief it would be to move the range where you pleased. You can do this with a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove—cook your dinner out on the porch, if you like. It is the only range that is really portable—that works equally well in any place. There are no connections to be made, as in a gas range; no wiring, as with an electric stove; no sooty flues and ash-filled grates, as with coal or wood.

The long, enameled chimneys carry the heat directly up to saucapans, oven or boiler; you get full value from your fuel, without waste.

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove
Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, turquoise blue enameled chimneys. Hand, enamel finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is lined with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.
